

Essex County Birth & Breastfeeding Coalition &

The IFS/East Orange Family Success Center

are partnering to present to you

A Community Discussion on Black Maternal Health Disparities in New Jersey

during

Black Maternal Health Week

designated by Black Mamas Matter Alliance from April 11-17, 2018

Honoring Our Doulas Ceremony

Honoring the Doulas of SPAN Parent Advocacy Network's Improving Pregnancy Outcomes Community Doula Program
& Midwife Edith Eze, BSN, CNM, MS

Keynote Speaker

Anjanette Vaidya

founder of Honor Your Mamas

Homeplace: Towards Justice in Perinatal Outcomes Among Black Women

Q&A to follow

Join us on

Monday, April 16, 2018

4:30 - 7:30 pm

Panel Discussion

Black Women Leaders: Improving Maternal & Infant Health Outcomes with Q&A

at

East Orange Family Success Center 132 South Harrison Street
East Orange, NJ 07018

Event Coordinators

The Essex County Improving Pregnancy Outcomes Project is a program of the SPAN Parent Advocacy Network and is funded by a health service grant from The New Jersey Department of Health.
For more information call 800-654-7726

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/essex-county-birth-and-breastfeeding-coalition-recognizes-black-maternal-health-week-tickets-44473991907>